

1 Put the words in brackets in the correct order and answer the questions.

① A:What is (on earth / living / the largest animal)? B:(A whale) is. (教) p.54
the largest animal living on earth

訳 (地球上に住む最大の動物は)は何ですか。

② A:Which do you use, (printed / a dictionary / on paper) or an electronic dictionary?
a dictionary printed on paper

B:I use (a dictionary printed on paper). (教) p.55

訳 (紙に印刷された辞書)か電子辞書か、あなたはどちらを使っていますか。

2 Make sentences using the words below.

① Many students were interested (in the books / the news / the students / by / written / thanks to). H23 京都府改 in the books thanks to the news written by the students

thanks to ~ ~のおかげで

② in his taiko performance / was / expressed / impressed with / I / the passion (教) p.76

I was impressed with the passion expressed in his taiko performance.

3 Tom is *preparing a speech about the book he *recommends the most. *Put the Japanese sentences into English. *prepare 動準備する *recommend 動勧める *put A into B AをBで言い表す

① これは私の^{*1}お気に入りの本です。 ② ^{*2}作者からのメッセージ はとても^{*3}深いです。

① This is my favorite book . The title is The Fall of Freddie the Leaf. This book was introduced in English class. The story is quite simple, but ② the message from the author is very deep . I was really moved. This is a book you must read at least once in your life. ^{*1}favorite ^{*2}author ^{*3}deep

4 Now it's your turn. Write a speech about the book you recommend.

This is my favorite book. The title is Harry Potter. Harry Potter is a series of seven fantasy novels written by the British author J. K. Rowling. The story is totally awesome. I recommend Philosopher's stone because the first book is important to understand the plot. This is a book to read at least once in your life.

※別解 This is my favorite book. The title is Momotaro. When I was four, my nursery school teacher introduced it to us. The story was quite simple, but I enjoyed it a lot.